

REVOLUTION

Homework Ideas

Find out about health and medicine in Victorian times—what were the common diseases and how did they treat them?

Find out about one of these famous Victorian ladies _ Florence Nightingale, Charlotte Bronte, Mary Seacole, Mrs Beeton

Read a book by Charles Dickens (a version for children, not the original!)

Make a Victorian recipe, such as Apple Charlotte, Banbury cakes or custard tarts—take photos of your creations (or bring to school for sampling by teachers!)

Find out about the first railways and the first trains—where were the railways—draw a map—draw a picture of a steam train

Find out about the first public toilets—who invented them, how much did they cost to use them?

What games did Victorian children play? Try some of them

The Football league began in Victorian times—who were the founding member teams? Who won the league in its first few years?

When was the first FA cup and who won the first few of these?

Draw a picture of Queen Victoria